We are pleased to recommend the services of Newco Catering and Logistics LTD. to you establishment.

We engaged the services of Newco in May 2014 to provide catering services for our Expatriate senior staff as well as our executive functions. Moreover, they also handled the cleaning and laundry of our expatriate accommodations.

Their staff follows the Health and Safety Standards, providing hygienic and timely meals that meet our standards.

They also have a feedback assessment plan, where we constantly communicate with them with our suggestions, looking for ways on how to improve for the future.

We are therefore recommend their services to you and will be more than ready to allow you visit our site for assessment if needed.

With best regards,

Bruno Bitencourt
Administrative and Finance Manager
